Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

David Stawick, Secretary,

I am against this new proposal to limit the leverage to 10:1 for United States traders. Please do not change the current rules for trading. I am referring to RIN 3038-AC61. If you change the current regulations here in the U.S. I will take my money and place it with foreign brokers. I will not trade in a country that would limit my income in such a way.

Thanks in advance for killing this idea of changing the rules.
