Subject: new proposal to change leverage available to their retail customers to 10 to 1

To whom it may concern.

I want to voice my concern about the proposed new rule change. I understand why something needs to be done to protect the retail trader. 400, 300, 200 even 100 to 1 is way to much leverage. I would support a 50 to one rule maximum. 10 to one is way to extreme. Please consider this level as an option.

Thank You
