Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

RIN 3038-AC61

hello dear sir /mam

i heard bout the new regulation for forex and the one that set leverage to 10 :1 and i really like it but the problem this may stop major portion of traders from trading as forex for a lot is the legal and resanobile way to gamble so it carries a lot of emotions for traders and i think this step may reduce revenue and number of tradrs ,i think it is better to make it as an option as many companies dont offer 10 :1 leverage as option so making it a must option offered by companies will be very good my regards
