Subject: Regulation of Retail Forex

Dear David,

I am writing in regards to RIN 3038-AC61 and I want to voice my displeasure with the proposed changes. If these changes are approved forex fraud will worsen and unregulated dealers from around the world will thrive, while operating without requirements for capital adequacy, risk management models, marketing ethics, dealing practices or even returning of customers funds. The United States may cost itself millions of dollars in trade revenue. Thousands of white collar jobs that require an advanced education and range from software developers to accountants to foreign exchange dealers may be eliminated, or move out of the United States. Please do not make the proposed changes.

Thank you for your time,

Kevin R Williams
