As a trader I I wish to state that making the leverage less then 100:1 is a marked hinder to me and my fellow traders. I understand the reason but have been around many newbe traders as well as myself in the beginning and all find that the 100:1 is a perfect way to trade and that we are able to properly handle the results as we trade only 2-5% of out balance.
Thank you for your STRONG consideration in this matter.

Sincerrely Bob Anderson
