I am concerned about the changes you are proposing. I went from having 400:1 to 100:1. Now you are proposing 10:1. It looks like you are in the pockets of some fat cats that are trying to squeeze out the little guy. I make a few hundred every two or three months trading forex now this change will make me earn $0. If did not finish college but thought myself how to trade, and after two years of so so profits, I am finally making some cash . Thanks for taking the food out of my family's mouth in advance.
