RE: Regulation of Retail Forex

ID: RIN 3038-AC61

Dear Sirs:

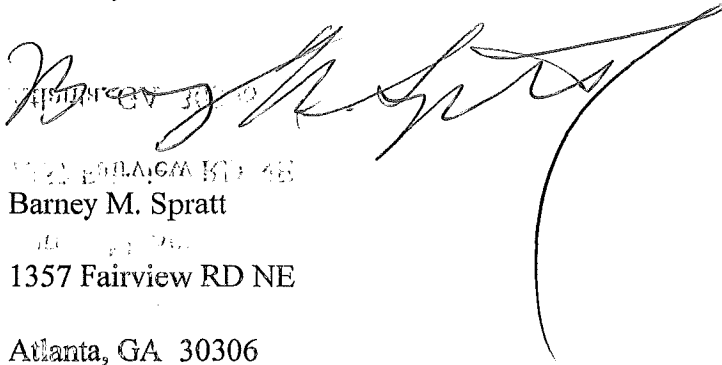

I applaud the CFTC and NFA in their efforts to eliminate fraud and deception within the Forex Market. I understand the CFTC is considering "Regulation of Retail Forex" per identification number RIN 3038-AC61.

However, I believe that retail investors should be given the freedom to choose the appropriate amount of leverage for each individual's trading style and risk tolerance.

Hence, I oppose limiting the leverage available to retail customers of 10:1.

Thank you for your favorable consideration of this matter.

Sincerely,

Barney M. Spratt
