Dear CFTC Comments:

Do you know anyone who lost her job three years ago, and is working (after a professional, hard-working career of 30 years) for $10 an hour behind a counter in a department store, who now can't make mortgage payments on her 700 sq. foot condo she only bought five years ago at the age of 53, and is now in danger of losing that roof over her head? I do. Do you know anyone who put his whole heart, soul, and mortgaged "the farm" for a small business endeavor that was sure to succeed--until the ECONOMY IMPOLODED, leaving him with no return for four years hard work, nor that of his two sons, and in danger of foreclosure of his home? I do. Yet the very people (I don't consider them people--'monsters' is more appropriate) who caused this feel no remorse over what they have done and, indeed, are actually arrogantly continuing along the same path of disaster. And they have been, and continue to be, REWARDED for the disasters they have made of the lives of common, hard-working, middle-class Americans. SOMETHING NEEDS TO CHANGE! REINSTALL THE REGULATIONS THAT FDR PUT IN PLACE DURING THE DEPRESSION! DO SOMETHING!

Sincerely,

Tamara Pezzente
